

Apostrophes

Apostrophes can be used to show possession or to make a contraction.

Write a P if the apostrophe denotes possession or a C if the apostrophe forms a contraction.

- _____ 1. Marcia wasn't at the baseball game yesterday.
- _____ 2. Paul's brother enjoys playing chess with him.
- _____ 3. Karen's garden seems to always be in bloom.
- _____ 4. The city's lights were twinkling brightly.
- _____ 5. The school's playground is brand new.
- _____ 6. Roberto doesn't want to work on math right now.
- _____ 7. My mom and dad aren't going to the play tonight.
- _____ 8. Jessica's room is painted purple.
- _____ 9. It wasn't very long ago that I went to the movie theater.
- _____ 10. Shouldn't we clean up this mess?

Write a sentence using an apostrophe to show possession. _____

Write a sentence using an apostrophe for a contraction. _____
